RICHMOND CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 23, 1915. NUMBER 252

CONTRACTOR DEFENDANT IN CITY'S ACTION

A suit of considerable local interest will be heard by Superior Judge McKenzie at Martinez today. The case is that of the city of Richmond vs. Fred Meyers, to condemn property on Twenty-third street just below the Oakland branch of the Santa Fe's viaduct. Attorney Clarence Odell will represent Meyers while attorney T. H. Delap will act for the city. Recently the city offered Meyers $198 for the property which consists of 3,080 square feet.

Meyers a local contractor claims that the assessments for street work which will be done when the property is taken over by the city would be aproximately $366. He claims that twenty-five foot lots one hundred feet in depth of 2,500 square feet are being sold for $1,300 directly oposite his property.

DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME IN THIS CITY

Mrs. Margaret Cuthbert, mother of Miss Margaret Cutberth and Florence Cuthbert, Yager Apartments, 267 Seventeenth street, this city, died Sunday morning at her daughter's home. Deceased had come west to visit the Exposition. She was 64 years of age and a prominent resident of Abilene, Kansas. Two other daughters, Miss Mabel Cuthbert of Kansas and Miss Marie Cuthbert of San Francisco survive.

The remains are in charge of the Bert Curry Undertaking Parlors. The funeral will be held in Abilene.

THREE CENTURIES AGO

Governor Bradford, the second governor of Plymouth Colony first conceived the idea of Thanksgiving, two hundred and ninety-four years ago—one year after the Mayflower had landed on the coast of Massachusetts.

Can you realize what hardships and misfortunes those early pioneers had undergone—that since then a great nation has been formed, not however, without great difficulty.

Men as well as nations become strong only by overcoming difficulties and by making preparation for the future. In this way opportunities can be seized and not allowed to slip away because of unpreparedness.

This is Thanksgiving week. Will you get the real Thanksgiving spirit by resolving to make every day a brighter one, thereby making every future Thanksgiving a happier one.

Begin today to secure your future and your happiness by saving. Have been in the habit of doing, so that when the time comes to investment you will be ready. build a home or make a good investment you will be ready.

UNEARTH RING OF OPIUM GANG

Clever and skillful work by the Night desk office Frank Standiford and Officer Harry Livingston, has brought to light the operations of a ring of "Mexican opium" operatives, who for the past few months have been flooding the several railroad camps in this city with the deadly drug. For the past ten days, Standiford and Livingston, acting in conjunction with Chief of Police Charles Walker have been investigating the case and last night Standiford and Livingston arrested Mino Monetti of Oakland, on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and also one of violating a government law.

When taken into custody, Monetti gave the name of A. Pista. He had in his possession a 48 largeloaded loaded revolver, two watches and other material.

Ten days ago Chief of Police Walker learned that the section camps in this vicinity were receiving large quantities of the drug, which has a similar effect as the Chinese opium and which is known as Mexican opium. Walker detailed Standiford and Livingston to the case and himself conducted investigation.

Last week Monetti came to Richmond with a small suitcase, which according to the police was filled with the drug. He spent the day at the sehtion damps and left for the city with more than $200 in money, secured from the sale of the stuff.

Several trips were made, but the police did not interfere, awaiting an opportunity to get evidence not only on Monetti but also the ring leaders of the alleged gang.

Last night Monetti came to Richmond and rented a room in a west sid rooming house. When he left for his supper, Standiford in civilian's attire, entered the room and found a large quantity of the 'dope' in the man's suitcase.

Standiford then traced Monetti to a west side saloon. He entered and engaged in a conversation with the man, securing considerable valuable evidence that will be used to prosecute the case.

A few moments later, Livingstone walked up and placed Monetti under arrest. Monetti protested and declared that his name was A. Pigeta. Previous investigation by the police however proved this to be fictitious name.

The police have unearthed considerable evidence and a number of arrests are expected within the next few houre. It is said that several prominent men are involved in the traffic.

The ring is said to have headquarters in both Oakland and San Francisco. Each month, it is said, thousands of dollars worth of the drug is sold to laborers in the various "camps" about the bay district.

Thea rrest is an important one and is a big feather in hat of the chief of police Walker and the members of the local police department.

Two Arrests Were Made

Chris Apischine, and D. W. Hargis were taken into custody last night by Officer Glover and Sergeant Jennings. Apischino served six years in Folsom on a burglary charge. The police are holding the men for investigation.

GIRLS TRIUMPH OVER BERKELEYANS; BOYS LOSE

The second team of girls of the Richmond Union High school had little difficulty in defeating the McKinley Introductory high team at basketball yesterday afternoon. The score was 29 to 16.

The boys five lost to the varsity freshmen.

MAN IS KILLED IN REVOLVER DUEL SUNDAY

Dominico Gianizoni, a money lender of 159 Adeline street, Oakland was shot and killed Sunday afternoon in the home of Frank Bruno at Pittsburg. Bruno was taken into custody yesterday afternoon by Sheriff R. R. Veale on a murder charge. Six shots were fired by the assassin. Five took effect, striking the Oaklander in the chest. It is said that Gianizoni and Bruno became involved in an altercation. The latter, it is said opened fire and the former returned, firing four shots, none of which took effect.

EVENT FOR MATSON FUND TO BE HELD

The committee in charge of the Matson defense league fund last night announced that the Ford automobile to be contested for the purpose of raising money for the appeal of the court's decison had been purchased and the affair will probably be held either just before Christmas or early in January.

The committee consisting of Fred Beckman, Fred Eggerth, R. Gale, P. T. Duffy, C. Millward and R. W. Seamans will begin immediately a systematice campaign to dispose of tickets for the affair.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER TO WAGE LEGAL WARFARE

George M. Loomis, of this city has filed a contest for the application of the probating of his late wife's will. According to Loomis, his daughter and sister-in-law influenced his wife, Mrs. Lena Loomis in making her will. He claims that on October 24th his wife went to San Francisco to visit his daughter, Bertha Zckle and her sister Mrs. Francis Wedmeyer; that she suffered a stroke of heart failure October 26th; that Mrs. Loomis was taken from the German Hospital to the ofice of Attorney M. L. Ashe where she made her will, collapsing after signing the article and that he was not notified of her illness until after they had influenced her to make the will in their favor. Mrs. Loomis died November 6th. The estate comprises real estate here and $12,000 in cash, which Loomis claims is community property.

WELL ATTENDED MEETING HELD BY POTTERS LOCAL

A well attended meeting of the Potters Local was held last night. Considerable business was transacted. The differences between the Western Pottery company and the employees did not come up for discussion. The men have not yet officially placed the matter before the union, preferring to settle the matter without any serious trouble.

FANCY DRESS PARTY IS HELD AT GRIFFINS HOME

A delightful neighborhood fancy dress party was given at the home of little Warren Griffins, 411 South Twelfth street last Friday evening. The small guests began to arrive at 7 o'clock, until the assembly was a mixture of colonial maids, Charley Chaplins, Turks, Sis Hopkins and various other characters carefully concealed under masks. Each guest was given a number and a slip of paper and pencil on which he or she were required to guess the name of each person. Miss Laura Spences was given the prize in this contest, while Miss Bertha Floyd as Sis Hopkins and Master Palmer Wells as Charley Chaplin were each given prizes for the best sustained characters. The mysterious guests later proved to be as follows: Allen Damon, clown; Clark Hadsell, clown Charlie Hadsell, ghost; Russell Floyd, cowboy; Charlie Renwick, Indian; Harold Woods, Turk; Palmer Wells, Charlie Chaplin.; Willie McMasters, clown; Warren Griffins, clown; Laura Spencer, mother goose; Margaret Carey, Indian maid; Bertha Floyd, Sis Hopkins; Althea McMasters, an old 49'er woman; Rosalie Hadsell, colonial dame; Marie Hadsell, Spanish lady; Pauline Hall, little Bo-Peep; Violet Van Demark, Yama Yama girl.

REGENT THEATER

"A Modern Magdalen," featuring Catherine Countiss and Lionel Barrymore wil be presented at the Regent theater, the popular playhouse at 1106 Macdonald avenue tonight. The film contains five reels and is one of the best ever put out by the Life Photo Film Corporation. Sensational scenes abound. The film deals with the daughter of a poor workingman. Dissatisfied, the girl weds a wealthy mill owner and leads a life of revelry. Her reformation and lesson that true love is far better than luxuries add greatly to the picture's attraction.

Several other goods films complete the bill.

The Elks Win

Inscribed in the hall of Richmond hal lof baseball fame is the cognomen of Mr. R. O. D. Murphy, known to the populace as Rod Murphy. Not only is Rod adept at dodging jitney buses and Fords as is shown by the fact that he still is in possession of both pins and all of his anatomy but also and of far more importance, the addition to the Elk flock is a vertable chunk of material commonly known as speed. When Rodickus sets sail for any particular point begin to get ready to wager the contents of bank account that the handsome center fielder will arrive.

Rod has won a home in the hearts of Richmond fandom during his few performances in an Elk uniform. So it was that we gathered at Bill's park anticipating a couple of thrillers from said Mr. Murphy.

And like all true representatives of the land of spuds and Erin Go Braugh, he produced. (Aand a Dutchman writing this story, too.)

It was his theft of the home plate in the first spasm that put pep into the game for the time being. And also the old boy grapped three bingles. For which we thank Mr. Murphy and assure him that we love him, baseball speaking. We'll leave the amorous (pelfered from Mr. Speed Rogers) exhibitions to the girls, bless 'em.

By the way the score was 6 to 5. The contest travelled over an eleven inning route and the victims masqueraded under the name of the Telegraphs.

The Elks took things rather easy in the early stages of the contest, but when the visitors began to look rather formidable our heroes got busy and the usual consequences were the result.

Four errors were charged to the boys, but piffle what is four errors with the kind of baseball the club has been dishing up.

As soon as we have the time and space we are going to say some very pretty things about Bill Luce, Edwardus Benn, Willie Cunningham, Kenny Ingraham, Clifford Cleek, Jack Conger, "Henery" Christianson, Charley Burns, Frankie Gordon, Rod Murphy, Butch Woodbury and Bill Daniels and any others we may have overlooked.

It was the game of the season and it was truly a fitting one. Many are of the opinion that the Elks could have cleaned up the visitors in the regulation nine innings, but the visitors were far from being a bunch of cripples and while we are of the same opinion, we are satisfied with the result of the afternoon's pastime.

The Elks gathered in fifteen safties, one being a triple by Cuty Cunningham and two being sackers by Messers Benn and Murphy.

First Inning—

Fusco and Valla out, Benn to Ingraham; Querolo out, Christensen to Ingraham.

Murphy doubled to left field; Conger sacrificed him to 3rd. Crisby to Allen; Murphy stole home; Christensen flew out to Riseburg; Cunningham out, Gracia to Allen.

Second Inning—

Allen flew out, Benn, Risburg out Christensen to Ingraham; Garcia fanned.

Ingraham singled to center field; Benn doubled to left field, scoring Ingraham; Benn out going to 3rd; Querlo to Risburg to Garcia; Woodbury out, Garcia to Allen; Cleek fanned.

Third Inning—

Husky fanned; Leahy flew out to Conger; Crisby fanned.

Fourth Inning—

Frusco singled to right field; Valla flew out to Benn; Guerrolo flew out to Cunningham; Allen singled to right field; Woodbury went to throw the ball to second base but threw it to left field and both men scored; Risburg out, Christensen to Ingraham.

Ingraham walked and stole second; Benn flew out to Risburg; Woodbury hit into a double, Risburg to Fusco to Risburg.

Fifth Inning—

Garcia out, Conger to Ingraham; Husky safe on Conger's error; Leahy fanned; Husky stole second, went to third on Christensen's error and scored on Murphy's error. Crisby singled to center field, Fusco singled to hight field; Valla safe on fielder's choice; Querollo safe on field choice; Crisby scoring; Allen flew out to Woodbury.

Cleek flew out to Leahy; Gordon flew out to Querrolo; Murphy singled to left field, out trying to steal second, Fusco to Risburg.

Sixth Inning.

Risburg flew out to Murphy; Garcia out, Benn to Ingraham; Husky flew out to Gordon.

Conger singled to center field; Christensen safe on Valla's error; Cunningham scored Conger and Christensen with a 3-bagger hit to center field; Benn singled to left field; Woodbury flew out to Garcia; Cleek hit into a double, Risburg to Valla to Allen.

Seventh Inning—

Leahy fanned; Crisby out, Conger to Ingraham; Fusco flew out to Cunningham.

Gordon flew out, Allen, Murphy and Conger out, Risburg to Allen.

Eighth Inning—

Vall aout, Christensen to Ingraham; Querrolo singled to center field; Allen flew out to Woodbury; Risburg flew out to Woodbury.

Christensen and Cunningham fanned; Ingraham flew out to Valla.

Ninth Inning—

Garcia singled to left field; Husky doubled to center field scoring Garcia; Leahy flew out to Ingraham; Crisby out, Christensen to Ingraham; Fusco flew out to Murphy.

Benn out, Garcia to Allen; Woodbury out to Allen; Cleek flew out to Quarrello.

Tenth Inning—

Valla singled to right field; Querollo flew out to Ingraham; Allen singled to right field; Risburg walked; Garcia struck out Cleek threw Risburg out at first base.

Gordon flew out to Quarello; Murphy out an infield hut stole second; Conger walked; Christensen hit into a double, Garcia to Allen.

Eleventh Inning—

Husky out, Benn to Ingraham; Leahy out, Christensen to Ingraham; Crisby walked and was forced to second by Fusco.

Cunningham out, Crisby to Allen; Ingraham walked; Benn singled to left field; Woodbury singled to left field, filling the bags; Cleek singled, scoring Ingraham with the winning run.

MID-WINTER LEAGUE DOPE

By Hughie

That old familiar dish, so well rembered from childhood, hash, was dished up on the Pt. Richmond grounds Sunday afternoon. Yes, gent, there was a bit of everything such as you find in hash. There was wonderful pitching such as the kind Jesse James dished up for the Boston Braves last year. If Jesse James isn't his name we'll christen him that anyway. Also in this hash there was a fine control everyone over being knocked to the four corners of the earth. For reference see Pery Chamberlain. If you have noticed in amongst hash there is always something tough, you can't digest, if you will dig up the annals of baseball sixty years ago you will find Joe Rizzo and "Mitterwald the Great" leading the list of stars. Yes, gents, if you would have to admit that they are 100 per cent better ball players and 100 per cent tougher today than they were sixty years ago. The score was 20-0 favor Winewith haven

Skinny Beegon played a great game at first and signed a contract to play with Winehaven in 1916 getting a raise in his salary. Beeson's youth is a draw back otherwise he would surely land a berth in faster company.

When Ping Bodie came back to the Seals he never realized that he had a rival across the bay, but finally the news has wafted toward us that Ping Bodies berth with the Seals will be filled by Bert Flynn if Bert keeps up his hitting streak. Bert got five hits Sunday out of six times at bat. He now leads the team in hitting.

Charlie Langridge played a great game at third and got two good wallops at the horsehide.

Penny Thurber threatened to knock the ball thru the new tunnel but was robbed of some pretty hits. He finally slammed the ball for two bases. He could have made a home run only for his supporters which at present are under the influence of rheumatism.

We now come to the big factor of the massacre—pronounce it in a hushed tone—Pinky—he pitched and pitched and pitched. No matter what kind of a curve whether it was groved or not they all missed it. He could easily have repeated his performance of the Sunday before but spared their feelings and let them down with three hits. Pinky is sure going at great rate and is bound for faster company soon. At present Winehaven has won 75 per cent of games played and it is an established act that the Mod-Winter League pennant will be hung up in Winehaven. The place to hang it has been selected and it will in all probability be the National colors of Winehaven. A beautiful picture of Pinky has been painted and will be mounted on the pennant. Neatly pinned around the pennant will be an old sock of each player on the team. Tied onto the largest sock will be the pencil with which Hughie Mack scored the victorys of the league. It will be on exhibition for one week so gents, be on hand to see Winehaven bust up the Mid-Winter League. It will be a grand finish
